AN STI COULD STOP YOU FROM HAVING A BABY

The fact is that chlamydia can lead to infertility. Most chlamydia infections are in 15-29 year olds, and many are not aware that they have one. If you have had unprotected sex, see your doctor about getting tested. Using a condom is the best way to avoid getting or spreading a sexually transmissible infection.

STIs ARE SPREADING FAST
ALWAYS USE A CONDOM

www.australia.gov.au/STI

Australian Government

Authorised by the Australian Government, Capital Hill, Canberra.